SIT30616 Certificate III in Hospitality

Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who have a range of well-developed hospitality service, sales or operational skills and sound knowledge of industry operations. Using discretion and judgement, they work with some independence and under limited supervision using plans, policies and procedures to guide work activities.

This qualification provides a pathway to work in organisations such as restaurants, hotels, motels, clubs, pubs, cafés, and coffee shops.

Key Outcomes

- Work cooperatively with others and deal effectively with issues, problems and conflict. Work effectively in a hospitality environment and provide service to customers during service periods while dealing with numerous sales, service or operational tasks simultaneously to meet the needs of multiple and diverse customers.
- Source and use current and emerging information on the hospitality industry. This includes industry structure, technology, laws and ethical issues specifically relevant to the hospitality industry.
- Communicate effectively with and provide quality service to both internal and external customers. Establishing rapport with customers, determine and address customer needs and expectations, and respond to complaints.
- Skills and knowledge required to be socially aware when serving customers and working with colleagues. Ability to communicate with people from a range of social and cultural groups with respect and sensitivity, and to address cross-cultural misunderstandings should they arise.
- Provide on-the-job coaching to colleagues. Ability to explain and demonstrate specific skills, knowledge and procedures and monitor the progress of colleagues until they are able to operate independently of the coach.
- Incorporate safe work practices into own workplace activities. Ability to follow predetermined health, safety and security procedures and to participate in organisational work health and safety (WHS) management practices.
- Use personal hygiene practices to prevent contamination of food that might cause food-borne illnesses. Ability to follow predetermined organisational procedures and to identify and control food hazards.
- Deliver quality customer service and sell to retail customers. It requires the ability to determine customer needs, match products and services to their needs, and facilitate a sale
- Responsibly sell or serve alcohol.
- Handle food safely during the storage, preparation, display, service and disposal of food. It requires the ability to follow predetermined procedures as outlined in a food safety program.
- Use personal hygiene practices to maintain the health and wellbeing of self and others.
