

South Australia Licensing and Certificate of Registration

Real Estate Specialists

Sales Representative License– is this for you.....

Sales representatives work for land agents and are involved in selling and leasing land and businesses. Sales representatives must be registered with Consumer and Business Services. Existing sales reps who want to also do property management must apply to have the property management condition added to their registration. Registered land agents don't need a separate registration if they are working as a sales representative.

Property Manager– is this for you....

Anyone employed by a land agent who manages residential or commercial properties. Existing sales reps who manage properties need to apply to have the property manager condition added to their existing registration. You need to be registered to sign agency agreements, perform appraisals, conduct inspections and negotiate leases.
